

Mahopac shows TLC for TLC Foundation

Mahopac News was on hand for the Tyathlon this past Saturday! Here are our photos from the morning, and check out our full coverage on page 6!

Louis Campbell presents a check on behalf of the TLC Foundation to the Children's Brain Tumor Project, which was created by Dr. Jeffrey Greenfield, a neurosurgeon at Weill Cornell Medical Center who had Ty as his patient. Frustrated when he ran out of surgical options for Ty, Dr. Greenfield went on to create The Children's Brain Tumor Project. After the presentation check was drafted, the TLC Foundation learned that $40,000 would fund a 12-month fellowship in the program, and announced that the check would be re-drafted for that amount.

Tara Foley, Dianna Ferrieri, Barbara Marks, Donna Massaro, David Derocher, Jen Kelly, Jim Ratschmidt and Christy Donohue take a breather at the TyAthlon

The Campbell family: Cindy and Lou, formerly of Mahopac, with their younger son, Gavin.

(left to right): Peter Warmke, Eddie Rose, Joe Hyland, Chris Marino and Lou Campbell

Cheerleaders from the Mahopac school district cheer on each participant at the finish line, chanting "We are proud of you!"

The yellow team of swimmers enter the water.

Town of Carmel police were there to lend support and ensure safety.

Bikers approach the finish line in the TyAthlon as spectators cheer them on.

Runners take off for the second 5K run/walk. They went from Marina Drive to the Averill Estates on North Lake Blvd. and back.

Residents and out-of-towners gather at Lake Mahopac to take to the frigid waters during the swimming portion of TyAthlon last Saturday.